Entry is open but the number of framed artworks and sculptures is restricted to four per person. Other items may be submitted to replace any sold.

A 10% commission will be charged on the sale of artwork this year but the entry fee is still $20 for up to 4 works.

Exhibiting artists living on Bruny Island are asked to participate in staffing the exhibition.

Photographic images must be a minimum A5 (15x20cm) and framed or mounted on stiff board with name, title and price provided on reverse.

All framed and heavier items must be fitted with hooks and wire ready for hanging and labeled.

Sculptures must be able to fit on a small plinth, or be free standing and be labeled.

A retail space will be available for the sale of unframed artworks (min A4 -max A3 size) FOR EXHIBITORS ONLY. Each piece must be provided in a clear protective sleeve & clearly priced and labeled. Please include an itemised list of prints. This form can be downloaded from www.brunybirdfestival.org.au

Works, sold and paid for, may be taken during the Exhibition if necessary.

All works submitted must be CLEARLY labeled on the reverse side and include artist's name, title, selling price, and print edition (if relevant). All wrapping must be clearly labelled for repackaging of artworks

The exhibition committee endeavours to show all works during the exhibition, however, due to possible limited space, work will be selected with the criteria of the overall exhibition in mind.

Work will be arranged and hung by the exhibition committee. Each exhibitor will be allocated exhibition space that in the opinion of the exhibition committee is appropriate to the individual work and to the presentation of the overall exhibition. The exhibition committee reserves the right to withhold from exhibiting any work that it deems to be in their opinion unsuitable in subject or quality.

The exhibition committee will exercise all reasonable care when handling art works but cannot be responsible for the loss or damage of any works whilst in their custody. Exhibitors are responsible for insuring their works against loss or damage when in care of the committee or in transit.

Children's work will be happily accepted provided conditions of entry are met. No entry fee is required for their submissions.
